

Australian Government

Australian Institute of Family Studies
Child Family Community Australia

Webinar invitation

Fathers who use violence: “Whole of family” approaches where there is ongoing contact with children

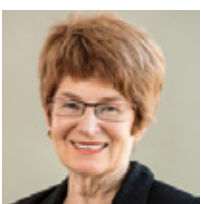

This webinar will explore options for working with families where fathers who use violence continue to have extensive contact with children.

It will outline emerging practices, with a focus on the developing area of “whole of family” approaches. A range of strategies to address the needs and safety of women and children who continue to have contact with fathers who use violence will also be explored.

Thursday, 6 July 2017 | 1:30–2:30pm AEST

Registration: www.aifs.gov.au/cfca/events Enquiries: cfca-exchange@aifs.gov.au

Presenters

Cathy Humphreys is Professor of Social Work at the University of Melbourne, and co-chair of the Melbourne research Alliance to End Violence Against Women and Their Children (MAEVe).

Dr Monica Campo is Education and Engagement Coordinator with the Women’s Legal Service Victoria, where she develops training and curriculum in family violence.

Visit the CFCA information exchange website: <www.aifs.gov.au/cfca>